WOODBURY, CT —Local Connecticut Artist's will be on exhibit in the Pomperaug River Watershed Coalition's photography show the "Four Seasons of the Pomperaug" running from May 12 through July 12, 2010 at the Good News Cafe and Gallery, 694 Main Street South, Woodbury.

Good News Cafe will welcome the Pomperaug River Watershed Coalition with an opening reception at the restaurant from 3 to 5 p.m. on Sunday, May 16. The public is cordially invited to meet the artists, view their exhibition, and learn more about the works while enjoying complimentary hors d'oeuvres and wine.

To raise awareness and appreciation of the rivers that serve our towns, the Pomperaug River Watershed Coalition is sponsoring a photography contest that will feature scenes from the rivers in our watershed – the Pomperaug, Nonewaug and the Weekepeemee and their tributaries.

The Pomperaug River Watershed Coalition, in celebration of its 10th Anniversary, is sponsoring a "Four Seasons of the Pomperaug" Photography Contest. Professional and amateur photographers are invited to submit photographs of the Pomperaug River in any or all of the four seasons of the year. Photographs of the river are encouraged in a variety of categories such as: one photo in any season; photos of all seasons; shots of the same location in different seasons; general river images; photos of people and/or animals and the river. Contestants will be divided into three categories: Adult, Teen, and Child. Selected photos will be displayed in an exhibit at Good News Café in Woodbury. Winning photos will be announced on June 19 at a benefit event for PRWC. The Coalition also plans to use the winning photos in various fund-raising presentations including a calendar.
